

Employment & Discrimination Tribunal Hearings

Our Barristers has dealt with the full range of dismissal, discrimination and breach of contract cases that appear before the Tribunals.

We understand that employment disputes can be personally sensitive, therefore our barristers are used to handling issues with discretion. Our barristers can provide you with written advice on the merits of your case, draft documents on your behalf and give you advice over the telephone or via Zoom or Teams meeting. LSLC are also able to offer an individual fee package for negotiating on your behalf, conference and litigation, advisory, written work, and drafting.

Upon request our Barristers will provide:

- Merit assessment & Advice;
- Drafting ET1s and ET3s;
- Telephone, conference with solicitor and client;
- Undertake Settlement Agreements – at an agreed fixed rate with the client or employer.

Timescales

The timescales for your each package deal may vary depending on factors such as barristers' availability, the complexity of the case, and the seniority of the barrister.

Fees

At LSLC we charge fixed fees, which means that we will charge you a set amount of money for the work carried out under your instruction. Below are our estimates based on the ranges of fixed fees for barristers at LSLC. All fees include VAT (where applicable).

The fixed fees may vary depending on your needs – for example, your fees may be towards the higher end of the range if you need a more experienced barrister and/or you have a more complex case. If you have a particularly complex case, your fees may also be higher than the estimates below.

Additional costs

There are also likely to be additional costs, for example, for time spent in correspondence, via telephone/video conference, travel expenses, and court fees, these are charged at costs, additional costs such as photocopying is charged at £1 per page.
