

Immigration Appeals

If you wish to appeal against a Home Office visa or immigration decision, our barristers can advise and represent you. We can also just submit an appeal on your behalf, or ask for a hearing at the First-tier Tribunal (Immigration and Asylum Chamber) – our barristers can advise you about this.

Please note, barristers are not allowed to do legal aid work on a Public Access basis. To help you make an informed decision about whether to apply for legal aid or proceed with Public Access, you can use the legal aid eligibility calculator on the gov.uk website: <https://www.gov.uk/check-legal-aid>.

Timescales

Timescales for our services may vary depending on factors such as barristers' availability, the complexity of your case and the need for additional documents. You may contact us when your matter is urgent, for example, to appeal a decision within 14 days from the decision (from within the UK) or 28 days (from outside the UK). You may also need advice and/or representation at short notice. If so, please contact the clerks: our barristers will aim to advise you and/or represent you at a hearing where possible.

FEES

We may charge fixed fees, which means that we will charge you a set amount of money for the work. Below we provide estimates based on the ranges of fixed fees for barristers. All fees include VAT (where applicable).

If we charge fixed fees, these may vary depending on your needs – for example, your fees may be towards the higher end of the range if you need a more experienced barrister and/or you have a more complex case. If you have a particularly complex case, your fees may also be higher than the estimates below.

Additional costs

There are also likely to be additional costs, for example, to instruct an interpreter, court and tribunal fees, these are charged at costs. Details of these can be found at: (<https://www.gov.uk/court-fees-what-they-are>). Additional costs such as photocopying is charged at £1 per page. Click here to see other likely additional costs (<https://www.lslawchambers.co.uk/additional-costs>)
